

ESCO hard working personnel managed to increase the amount and variety of this company products in the first 9 months of the current Iranian year 1396 comparing the same period last year.

Announcing this, ESCO Managing Director in Plant Operation, Engineer Afzali said: In the 9 months period of the current year, we witnessed the production increase in different sections comparing the same period last year, which includes; in the coke oven plant and chemical materials 889,491 tons which indicates %28 production increase comparing the same period last year. In the sinter plant, the amount of produced sinter amounts to 2,289,694 tons which indicates %13 increase. In the blast furnace section the amount of production amounts to 1,753,412 tons of hot metal indicating %4 increase. In the steel making section 1,698,483 tons of ready ingot has been produced indicating %3 increase and in total we have had 1,634,620 tons for our final products showing %6 increase.

He further pointed to the increase in the amount and variety of this company and stated; in order to meet the market demands and expanding the types of our products, in the first 9 months of the current year the following profiles have been designed and produced in ESCO:

- The lightweight sloped channel size 20.
- The exporting coils with SAE series steel mark.
- Round shaped steel ingot size 250 mm.
- Beam blank.